

LIFE LONG
LEARNING EXPERIENCE

HANDLING MONEY

- Limited amount- managing
- Control the urge of buying out of limit
- Learnt about forex

STAYING AWAY FROM OUR PARENTS

- How to be independent
- Got the taste of life without parents
- How much parents do for us

TAKING CARE OF OURSELVES AS WELL AS OUR PERSONAL BELONGINGS

- Being alert and vigilant at all times
- Managing a suitcase
- Keeping track of things

LEARN TO ADJUST TO NEW FAMILY

- Realised that there is no place like home
- Don't have any expectations
- Adapt and adjust

LEARN THE DIFFERENT CULTURE OF SWEDEN

- Swedes believe in culture and religion if they want to.
- If religion is practiced by someone its is usually Christianity
- Given independence at very young age

MULTITASK

- Manage time- wake up on time.
- Manage a suitcase
- Assignments given to us
- Spend time with family- coming home on time

Notes

...veden by far has been one of the most meaningful journeys I have ever had. Because of previously living in America, I thought it would be rather same, and maybe was in some aspects. But living with a family and experiencing their daily life would be an experience of a lifetime.

I was excited at first but at the time of actually going and living with the family, I became much nervous. We also had a somewhat "circle time" the night before our so called dispersal. We were asked about our expectations. Mainly were told not to expect a lot of things and how to

... and accom...

THANK YOU