

Aadi Bharatia, awarded the 2nd prize in the Natya Sangeet Competition

Aadi Bharatia, a class VI Aquamarine student of The Orchid School, mesmerized the judges with his singing and won the 2nd prize in the Natya Sangeet Competition held in Pune.

'Madhukauns' & 'Gandharva Mahavidyalaya' are well-known organizations in Pune, actively working in the field of Indian Classical Music, since last many years. They have been organizing classical music competitions since last 8 years. One of the competitions is 'Natya Sangeet'. The age group was 11 to 18 years.

Aadi participated in the competitions, & sang a natyageet from the famous Marathi play 'Santa Kanhopatra'. His performance was very well appreciated by the judges & the audience there.

Wish you many more success Aadi!
