Dear Parents,

At The Orchid School, we believe that educating a child is a shared journey. As parents, you are our strongest partners in shaping young minds. Together, we can provide our children with meaningful exposure to the ever-evolving professional world.

We are delighted to invite you to become a part of our growing Knowledge Hub—an initiative where parents can share their expertise, experiences, and professional journeys with our students.

Whether your field is Data Science, Data Analytics, Financial Markets, Management, Technology, Entrepreneurship, Healthcare, Design, Media, Law, Education, Creative Art or any other emerging or specialized domain, your insights can inspire our students and help them explore the exciting opportunities that lie ahead.

Your contribution—through an interactive session, workshop, panel discussion, career talk, or mentorship opportunity—can bridge the gap between classroom learning and the real world, enabling students to make informed choices about their future.

If you would like to contribute to this initiative, we request you to complete the Google Form using the link below:

Together, let us build a vibrant learning community that equips our children with the knowledge, perspectives, and confidence to thrive in an ever-changing world.

We look forward to your enthusiastic participation.

Warm regards,

The Orchid School
